

Eliminating the Access 2016 Security Message

If you encounter the message “A potential security concern has been identified” when starting a program running in Microsoft Access 2016, do the following:

1. Download the file AddPath2016.
2. Using Windows Explorer, copy the file to directory where the software was installed.
3. Run the program by double clicking it from the windows explorer.